NAI IS NOW GAY'S

Kauai Stockman
Purchases the Island.

PLANS TO MAKE
MANY CHANGES

Stock the Fully
Probably Will Consolidate
All the Holdings.

Lanai will become one of the beauty spots of Hawaii, if the plans toward which Charles Gay is bending his energies are carried through, and the first step was taken Saturday when the two-thirds interest in the former Gibson holdings were purchased by him at auction for $108,000. This does not mean the entire cost according to the current rumor, and there can be had no confirmation as the parties are not talking of such things now, for it is understood that Mr. Gay will make good the losses of Mrs. Paul Neumann, her mortgage for $11,400 being the third and the sale being at a figure which would shut her out of benefits.

Despite the fact that there are two outside interests yet held in the island, that in time all will come under the hand of Gay is believed, and this will give to the Kauai man the most complete ranch in the entire group, for it has on it neither lantana nor mongoose. In spite of the few bids there was really much interest in the sale, and there were about thirty bankers, attorneys and real estate men at the court house door when at noon Saturday auctioneer Will Fisher cried the sale of the estate.

Cecil Brown opened the bidding with $75,000, and he was promptly raised to $100,000 by Charles Gay. There was a brief wait and discussion and S. M. Damon then announced his bid of $107,500. Mr. Gay went him $500 better, and after a long discussion by the auctioneer upon the merits of the proposition with an urgent plea for a higher bid, the property was sold to Mr. Gay for $108,000.

The purchaser of the island, Charles Gay, is a member of the firm of Gay & Robinson, who are among the biggest ranchmen in the Territory; but he made the purchase for himself alone. It is his intention to convert the property into a gigantic ranch, for which purpose it is well adapted. The land purchased by Gay covers over 12,000 acres in fee simple, and the leases cover nearly 25,000 acres in addition, and which do not expire for five years. The land is sufficient, according to report, to accommodate in pasturage 8000 head of cattle and about 20,000 head of sheep. There are at present upon the land about 18,000 head of sheep, about 249 cattle and nearly as many horses.

The amount obtained from the sale of the property will not pay the amount of the judgment rendered by Judge Gear in the case of G. Kuhnst vs. W. H. Pain and Mrs. Eliza A. Neumann. Judgment was for over $101,000, but including $11,400 claimed by Mrs. Neumann for money loaned to Paul Neumann and which was to be paid after the other claims of Kuhnst for $71,913 and Bishop & Co. for $29,773 had been settled. The attorneys' fees, auctioneer and commissioner's expenses, allowed by Judge Gear, will probably more than eat up any little balance without considering the claim of Mrs. Neumann. George Davis has already been allowed an attorney's fee of $1500 in this case.

Mr. Gay was seen yesterday at the Hawaiian in regard to his purchase. He was rather reticent relative to his future plans, but stated that he would establish a big ranch for both cattle and sheep upon Lanai. The purchase was made by him as an individual and not for the firm with which he is connected. In response to questions he said that he has no intention, for the present at least, of establishing a steamer service between Lanai and Honolulu, for the transportation of his stock, nor will he build a refrigerator plant there. However, he intends to import fine breeds of cattle from abroad and also from his ranch on Niihau.

Negotiations are also pending by Mr. Gay for the purchase from W. G. Irwin of his third interest in the Gibson estate, and also for the Hayselden interests on the island.

Circuit Court Notes.

Judge Robinson heard the Warren divorce case on Saturday. This is the case where both the husband and wife sue for divorce on cross-bills. Mrs. Warren, who brought the original suit, charges cruelty, and on the stand Saturday testified that Warren had struck her as many as two hundred times. Warren is employed at the Honolulu Iron Works, and according to his wife, gets six dollars per day. The hearing was not concluded Saturday and went over until today.

Judge Humphreys announced Saturday that he would appoint no successor to Miss Widdifield as clerk when he retires, as he cannot legally do so, as no draft can be made upon the appropriation until the appointment of his successor.
